

Catching your dream (...no time for loser)

von Tycho Barth für FAR EAST BOOTE

The first boat I ever had
Was an Optimist called Black Flag
A soapbox on the blueish sea
She wins every race - she and me

Tracking the line
Chasing the wind
Surfing the wave
Catching your dream

The first 420 I ever had
Was a XSP called Kiss-my-ass
We nicknamed her Speedy
She wins every race - she and me

Tracking the line
Chasing the wind
Surfing the wave
Catching your dream

The third boat I ever had
Was a 505 called Fifen mad
A aggressiv jubilating beauty
She wins every race - she and me

Tracking the line
Chasing the wind
Surfing the wave
Catching your dream

The next boat I´ll give my life
Is a Farr Platu twenty five
For my rocking friends and me
She wins every race - she and we

Tracking the line
Chasing the wind
Surfing the wave
No time for losers
Catching your dream
